

e-Learning Assessment at OCC

Course Level Assessment

(Policy # 7165)

Each Spring semester, a series of selected courses are required to participate in Course Level Assessment. The e-Learning Department, in conjunction with appropriate entities on campus, will deploy the assessment instruments to each selected course.

The e-Learning Program complies completely with the College's prescribed Course Level Learning Outcomes Assessment (Policy # 7165). According to the College's Guidelines all e-Learning courses will utilize the assessment instruments employed by all the courses of the College. Both the traditional and e-Learning courses apply common standards.

General Education Assessment

Each Spring semester, a series of selected courses are required to participate in the General Education Skills Test. The e-Learning Department, in conjunction with appropriate entities on campus, will deploy the assessment instruments to each selected course.

Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC)

(Policy # 7110)

Writing Across the Curriculum requires certain courses, identified as Writing Intensive Courses to conduct a 1200 (minimum) word qualitative assessment with the course.

Assessment results should be sent to elearningassessment@ocean.edu.

The dean will examine student essays for the following features:

- Appropriateness/relevance of the assignment.
- Selection of representative A/B, C, D/F papers.
- Quality of faculty responses to their student's essays.
